
ROOFTOP RODEO QUEEN AND ATTENDANT ROYALTY HANDBOOK

ESTES PARK WESTERN HERITAGE INC.

ESTES PARK, COLORADO

EPWH INC, ROYALTY PRO GRAM

The purpose of the EPWH Inc Royalty Program is to provide an opportunity for young women and men to be ambassadors of the Rooftop Rodeo, EPWH Inc, the Town of Estes Park and the sport of rodeo. As ambassadors, they will have opportunities to develop and enhance interpersonal skills that will benefit them throughout their lifetime.

The EPWH Royalty Court may consist of a Queen, Attendant, Princess, Wrangler, Jr Princess and Jr Wrangler. Each position is important to the success of the program. The goal of the Rooftop Rodeo Royalty program is to participate in as many statewide functions, and engage with Rooftop Rodeo committees wherever possible to promote awareness of our rodeo and increase attendance.

The Queen and Attendant proudly carry the title of Rooftop Royalty with pride and confidence at all times and understands that they are the rodeo ambassadors connecting the fans, the community and other rodeo organizations to the Rooftop Rodeo. Princess, Jr Princesses, Wranglers and Jr. Wranglers act as ambassadors for Rooftop Rodeo and the Rodeo Committee by assisting fans during Rodeo week. The EPWH Inc, Royalty Program is designed and managed by the Royalty Committee. All royalty related correspondence, suggestions, questions or concerns should be addressed to the Royalty Committee Chair.

Supervision Requirements

As an EPWH Inc representative for the Rooftop Rodeo, members of the Royalty Program are required to attend many events. Listed below are the guidelines set forth by the Committee to help ensure the safety and wellbeing of the Royalty members and EPWH Inc. members.

-  Royalty will be supervised/chaperoned at all times by parent/coach/guardian or coordinator. Friends are not allowed to accompany royalty during rodeo week and other functions during the year.
-  A Parent/coach/guardian should be available to their daughter/son at all times when attending a function as an RTR representative.
-  As representatives of the Rooftop Rodeo and EPWH Inc the court must be perceived as a team, therefore, members of the court must remain together unless other arrangements have been made and the Royalty Coordinator has approved them in advance.
-  Members of the Royalty Committee and/or Royalty Coordinator will monitor social media activities of members of EPWH Inc Royalty. Inappropriate or illegal use of social media will not be tolerated and may result in immediate dismissal from the program. Inappropriate includes use of profanity, inappropriate photos, bullying, criticism of sponsors, the Rodeo, the Town or EPWH Inc. or any other activity that does not represent the Rooftop Rodeo in a positive manor.
-  PETA, any animal rights people are to be reported to Greg Deiker. Do not speak to them.
-  Only immediate family members (limited to 2) are allowed in for free. (Parents and siblings)
-  Only parents/guardian are allowed behind the chutes and in the warm-up area.

Equine Safety

Safety for horse and rider are first and foremost for all royalty and royalty committee members.

-  Members of the Royalty Court, who ride, must demonstrate to the Royalty Committee that they are mounted on well trained horses that are accustomed to loud noises and commotion.
-  Horses should be able to walk in a parade and participate in arena events during rodeo week.
-  Should the Royalty Committee determine that any horse is unsafe; the participant will be asked to ride a different horse, or will not be able to ride. A switch in horses requires a new try out.
-  Determination of the safety of the horses will be at the discretion of the Royalty Committee, the arena coordinator, the stock contractor, or the fairground's manager. Decisions are final.
-  Proof of the health of the horse, vaccinations, and a coggins test are required for all horses that participate.
-  Western tack is required. It must be maintained properly and be safe and humane.
-  Transportation of horses must be safe.
-  Royalty will NOT discipline horses in the arena or at any public venue. If caught or reported doing so, will result in discipline.

QUEEN AND ATTENDANT REIGN

It is preferred that all royalty come from the Estes Park area. The Estes Park area is defined as the boundaries of the Estes Park School District. However, if it becomes apparent by January 1 that there will not be at least three (3) qualified resident candidates for Queen and Attendant; the geographical limits may be expanded to approximately a 60 mile radius, on the Front Range, from Estes Park.

The position of Queen and Attendant are a year-long commitment; July through July. Applicants must be willing to commit to this time frame. The Queen and Attendant are not allowed to try out for other royalty positions until after the Rooftop Rodeo.

APPEARANCE & ATTIRE

Good personal appearance is vital. Hair should be clean, neat and be a natural hair color, fingernails should be clean and manicured. Makeup should be appropriate to the situation. Official clothing must be clean and pressed.

- 👤 The Queen and Attendant are provided a crown and sashes.
- 👤 Buckle (Queen) is provided by EPWH Inc. and is a gift, which she keeps after her service to EPWH Inc.

- 👤 The Queen will provide her own basic wardrobe and is expected to wear appropriate Western attire when appearing on behalf of Rooftop Rodeo and EPWH Inc. in the arena, this will include:
 - Denim jeans must be dark blue not faded, split or have frayed hems. Jeans must fit properly and be pressed.
 - A long-sleeved Western shirt. Shirts may not be worn as a jacket either unbuttoned or un-tucked with a camisole, tank top or t-shirt as the main garment at official functions. Shirts that reveal cleavage are not allowed.
 - Hats must be worn at all times. They must be felt and of traditional Western style and shape. The Queen's crown must be in impeccable condition.
 - Proper Western boots, cleaned and polished; no high heeled or lace up boots.
 - Skirts must be knee length or longer
- 👤 At all other functions, the Queen is expected to wear what is appropriate for the designated function, however, an appropriate felt hat, crown, buckle, and sash must be worn to all functions. Outfits should be well coordinated and reflect current Western fashion.
- 👤 The Queen will coordinate attire for all events so the Queen and Attendant wear complimentary outfits. The Queen and Attendant will work together on this.
- 👤 Rooftop Rodeo/EPWH Inc crown, chaps, and sash may only be worn to, from, and at official functions. 👤 Royalty Coordinator and Royalty Committee members have the final say on appearance.

QUEEN TRAILER GUIDELINES

Sombrero Stables originally donated the horse trailer to EPWH Inc to be used to support the EPWH Inc Royalty program. In 2013 EPWH Inc took full ownership of the trailer. Although ownership of the trailer remains with EPWH Inc, the trailer is assigned to the family of the reigning Rooftop Rodeo Queen. EPWH Inc., will maintain the trailer, pay for annual registration, license plate renewal, and the cost of collision insurance.

Guidelines

- 👤 The trailer will be used only for official Royalty functions. This includes horsemanship practice sessions, rodeo appearances, and other events where the Queen and/or members of her court are representing EPWH Inc, and the Rooftop Rodeo.
- 👤 During the rodeo year, the trailer will be controlled by the reigning Queen.
- 👤 When not in use, the trailer will be parked at the Fairgrounds
- 👤 A travel log, which is located in the trailer, must be completed after each usage.
- 👤 If there is a need for repairs, contact EPWH Royalty Coordinator immediately.
- 👤 Only official royalty program sponsors may be displayed on the truck/car or horse trailer and must be approved by the royalty committee.
- 👤 The Queen has sole usage of the trailer unless at such time the Queen cannot attend a function and the attendant takes her place.

ROYALTY SPONSORSHIPS

Estes Park Western Heritage Inc. covers many of the Queen and Attendant expenses including but not limited to:

- 👤 Buckle, coat, and sashes
- 👤 Vehicle magnets
- 👤 Photographs and autograph sheets
- 👤 Miss Rodeo Colorado clinic expenses
- 👤 Rooftop Queens luncheon
- 👤 Budgeted travel expenses (mileage, food and hotel) to be agreed upon at beginning of reign

We have generous royalty program sponsors to help with the luncheon, signage on the queen trailer, clothing, hats and boots. Sponsors include Smokin' Dave's BBQ and Rocky Mountain Chocolate Factory for the Queens luncheon, Cinch, and Smith Signs.

The individuals selected as Queen/Attendant are expected to personally contact each of these sponsors for introduction.

All sponsorships or interested sponsors must go through the RTR EPWH Royalty committee and must adhere to all current Sponsorship Guidelines. The monies will be allocated to the program but not to the individual young lady.

The Queen and Attendant may obtain personal monetary donations but nothing may be promised in return. Personal sponsors may not display banners of logos at the fairgrounds, or on the truck/car and horse trailer. The Queen and Attendant may not wear personal sponsor logo apparel while representing Rooftop Rodeo and EPWH Inc. in an official capacity.

Cash sponsorships may not be obtained from businesses. If businesses want to sponsor cash, this will be designated for the EPWH scholarship fund.

The focus of the royalty program is being an ambassador of the Rooftop Rodeo, EPWH Inc., the Town of Estes Park and the sport of rodeo.
