

ROOFTOP RODEO PRINCESS & | WRANGLER PROGRAM HANDBOOK

The purpose of the Rooftop Rodeo Royalty Program is to provide an opportunity for young women and men to be ambassadors of the Rooftop Rodeo and the Town of Estes Park and the sport of rodeo. As ambassadors, they will have opportunities to develop and enhance interpersonal skills that will benefit them throughout their lifetime.

The Rooftop Rodeo Princess and Wrangler Royalty Court may consist of a Princesses, Wranglers, Jr Princesses and Jr Wranglers. Each position is important to the success of the program. The goal of the Rooftop Rodeo Royalty program promote the Rooftop Rodeo and the Town of Estes Park locally within the community and statewide.

Princess, Jr Princesses, Wranglers and Jr. Wranglers act as ambassadors for Rooftop Rodeo and the Rodeo Committee by assisting fans during Rodeo week. Contacts for the Rooftop Rodeo Royalty Program are Holly Spreitzer – Rooftop Royalty Coordinator and Cindy Schonholtz – Rooftop Rodeo Coordinator.

ROYALTY PROGRAM

Program Requirements

- All contestants must be single, never married, and never pregnant nor fathered a child. In addition, they must not live in inappropriate situations such as cohabitating with any member of the opposite sex that is not a family or extended family member.
- If any member of Royalty Court becomes married, pregnant or fathers a child, she/he automatically forfeits her/his title.
- All royalty contestants, who wish to ride in the arena during Rodeo week and/or ride in parades, must pass riding qualifications prior to the parade and Rodeo. Jr. Princess and Jr. Wrangler are not permitted to ride. If the initial horse that qualifies has to be changed, another riding qualification must be obtained with the new horse before royalty participates in any events.
- Each member of the Royalty Court and a parent or guardian must sign two documents; an Estes Park Fairgrounds Liability Waiver, which is kept on file with the Town of Estes Park and a Royalty Code of Ethics document. Royalty will be required to uphold the Code of Ethics throughout the entirety of their reign. Breach of the Code of Ethics will be grounds for dismissal.

Supervision Requirements

As a representative for the Rooftop Rodeo, members of the Royalty Program are required to attend many events. Listed below are the guidelines set forth by the Committee to help ensure the safety and wellbeing of the Royalty members Rooftop Rodeo Volunteers.

- 📌 Members of the Rooftop Royalty will be supervised at all times by a parent/guardian.
- 📌 As representatives of the Rooftop Rodeo the court must be perceived as a team, therefore, members of the court must remain together unless other arrangements have been made and the Royalty Coordinator has approved them in advance.
- 📌 The Royalty Coordinator may monitor social media activities of members of Rooftop Rodeo Royalty. Inappropriate or illegal use of social media will not be tolerated and may result in immediate dismissal from the program. Inappropriate includes use of profanity, inappropriate photos, bullying, criticism of sponsors, the Rodeo, the Town or or any other activity that does not represent the Rooftop Rodeo in a positive manner.
- 📌 If approached by anyone with questions concerning the care and treatment or rodeo livestock, refer them to Rodeo Coordinator Cindy Schonholtz – 719-440-7255.
- 📌 Only immediate family members (limited to 2) are allowed into Rooftop Rodeo for free. (Parents and siblings)
- 📌 Only parents/guardians in rodeo attire (Long sleeved button up shirt, jeans, hat and boots) are allowed in the warm-up area.

Equine Safety

Safety for horse and rider are first and foremost for all royalty and Rooftop Rodeo Volunteers.

- 📌 Members of the Royalty Court, who ride, must demonstrate to the Royalty Committee that they are mounted on well trained horses that are accustomed to loud noises and commotion.
- 📌 Horses should be able to walk in a parade and participate in arena events during rodeo week safely.
- 📌 Should the Royalty Coordinator determine that any horse is unsafe; the participant will be asked to ride a different horse or will not be able to ride. Switching horses requires a new try out.
- 📌 Determination of the safety of the horses will be at the discretion of the Royalty Coordinator, the rodeo coordinator, the stock contractor, or the fairground's manager. Decisions are final.
- 📌 Proof of the health of the horse, vaccinations, and a coggins test are required for all horses that participate.
- 📌 Western tack is required. It must be maintained properly and be safe and humane.
- 📌 Transportation of horses must be safe.
- 📌 Royalty will NOT discipline horses in the arena or at any public venue. If caught or reported doing so, will result in discipline.
